

A Happy New Year from all of us at Nthando Home of Safety. We trust that you are all rested and ready to take on 2014, a year sure to be filled with great opportunities and many blessings.

Nthando Home was closed during the Christmas holidays, in order to give our wonderful staff a much needed break. We opened our doors for the New Year on the 6 January 2014, and our staff is very excited to full the home again with beautiful children.

All the children that were placed with us last year, are all currently in loving homes. This is thanks to our great social workers and dedicated team.

Welcome to Etna, the latest member to join the Nthando family. She is a gifted social worker, who will be doing all the liaising with our social workers regarding placement of kiddies and the management thereof. We look forward to see what God has in store. And a big welcome to our three little princesses (sisters age 1, 4 and 5 years), who arrived at the home in the middle of February. We await another two babies in the following weeks to come.

2014 also sees great opportunity as we partner with Kings Smile, an NGO that feeds the little ones from our local informal settlements. On a daily basis they make 100's of sandwiches and take them down to these local informal settlements and feed the youngest there, while sharing the love of Jesus. They do amazing work, and we look forward to working together, as we care for the "least of these".

We trust that as our staff rested, that our volunteers were able to rest too. Each one of you have been such a blessing to us, and we trust that 2014 will be a blessed one for you as you continue to serve at Nthando Home. Our general manager, Leentjie, will be in touch with you regarding volunteer schedules for 2014.

MySchool, has been an amazing way for us to raise funds for the running of Nthando Home. In December 2013, we received over R700 from you adding us as a beneficiary. Well done. Keep on shopping and telling family, friends and colleagues to join the cause.

We pray that 2014 would be a year of blessing and great opportunity for each of you. We look forward to welcoming little lives into the home and to have you being part of their lives and ours.

Be blessed, from the

Nthando Home Family
