

Christmas is around the corner, and what a blessed time of year this is. A time for us to reflect on the year, and give praise to God for His faithfulness to us, as individuals and as an organisation. He has carried us through a great year, He has given us wisdom and guidance in decisions we have had to make, and He continues to provide for us in every way!

What does next year hold? We are so excited to be working alongside an organisation called The Ark next year. They are based just outside Mfuleni, and their school caters for a group of vulnerab children coming from the surrounding communities. We will be supporting them in ensuring that the children attending their school are developing as expected, progressing in their milestones, and will assist them in identifying and treating any physical, cognitive and/or emotional impairments. Please keep us in prayer, as we prepare for what God has called us to do in 2015.
